My sister was getting married and we went to Kama Sutra the musical and we had a blast!!! It was a historically funny good show. Very entertaining and cute. We like others went to pot pan right beforehand and all worked out perfect. Thanks to the Kama Sutra musical cast for everything.

My girl friend "kidnapped" me and I had no idea what I was in for. She only told me we were going out. What a great evening! I had a bad week and needed to relax. I could not have asked for a better remedy! I have not laughed that hard in a long time. I loved every minute of the show. It was absolutely awesome! Swami was fabulous. Dick and Gina were great too! Can't wait to plan a girls weekend with my friends from work. Can't wait to see it again! Keep up the great work all ... loved it, loved it loved it! Only dissappointment was I didn't buy the CD!

I was in town for a very short visit...ran into a friend that was having a really bad week and had heard about this show. After kidnapping my friend, we went to the show, neither of us knew quite what we were in for! WHAT A GREAT SHOW!!! I need to see it a few more times just to catch everything! I found myself watching "Dick" in the background trying to "figure out" differnt things that "Swami" showed him. I was laughing at just about everything from beginning to end! After the show, my friend and I both talked about how great we thought the show was and we both were very glad we went to see it. After the week we both had, as bad as it was, we got to forget all about it and laugh. Thanks to the cast and crew...I will tell everyone to go see it!

Loved it. Took my wife for our anniversary. The cast was a scream and we were surrounded by bride-to-be parties that got so into the show it was like they were part of it. Afterward, we were invited onto the stage for photos with the performers and we got an anniversary gift. We're telling everyone.

A group of girlfriends and I just recently saw the show at Davenport's for my best friend's bachelorette party. The experience was top notch from start to finish! A huge thank you to Terry who was so helpful and accomodating from the beginning. The show was clever, witty, and absolutely HYSTERICAL! We have all been raving about it since! I can't speak for the rest of the girls, but I know that I have been recommending it and raving about it to everyone I know! The cast was so much fun, and they were so nice to us after the show. It was such a pleasure getting to meet such talented actors/actresses. So a HUGE thank you to everyone involved in the show for showing us such an awesome time! I know Jessica had a blast, and this was one bachelorette party than none of us will soon forget! To anyone out there who is planning a bachelorette party, or just looking for something to do for a night out...This is it! You won't regret it and you won't forget it!

I found the show to be highly entertaining and John Boss was the standout with his outstanding singing and his comic ability.

I saw Kama Sutra about a month ago for the first time. It's clever. They have a drawing for a prize each nite....which is a, no pun intended, great DRAW for the show....and I gotta say tho, the best thing about the show was a performer by the name of John Boss. His charisma and stage presence made the show.

We went to the show Saturday night at the suggestion from an old friend from High School. We had a great time. It was very creative, clever and funny. I will have to go again because I have not laughed that much in along time. It was truly adult humor done in a way I really enjoyed.

Saw it Saturday at Davenports---it was hysterical!-- the audience was having a blast--seems there were at least 3 bachelorette parties going on---the cast is great and really knows how to work the crowd- John Boss is perfect as the Swami with his huge physical presence and great ad-libs---Jason Bowen rocks! I'm still smiling...

Only regret is that it started late, like 15 minutes which was disappointing. Thought the actress was really hot, and talented Still humming the 'morgasm' tunes; pretty creative and funny. Still laughing. Had a really good time.

We all had lots of laughs. A very original idea. The place could really use a few more bathrooms.

I laughed so much I couldn't stop. It was extremely funny and I'm sorry I didn't bring my husband. Next time, he's coming with me.

Yes, we liked the show. Very unique for Chicago. But we would rename it "You Need More Waitresses and the People Sitting Next to Us Smelled Like Pot": The Musical.

The music was wild, loved it and thought that Martha Screwitt was over the top, outrageously hilarious. This is original, edgy, and a great treat.

The Cher song was funny. The Martha Screw-It song was very funny. I even enjoyed the milf song after I found out I was one. BUT....while everyone else seemed to be quite captivated by the big lesbian number, well call me a prude, but I couldn't help thinking "If I was into girl on girl action - which I most definitely am not - I would have stayed home and listened to Howard Stern.

My secretary had her 40th birthday party there and all the girls loved it. So I took my husband. He was definitely not ready for the clitoris song. But he laughing the loudest of anyone around us. We both had an evening we won't forget. And what a fun place to see a show. Very unique for Chicago. It was like New York in the 1950's. You can sit at your table and drink and the performers are right there, just a few feet away. Highly recommended.

Did we love this show! My hairdresser took us. We were afraid it was going to be this totally Gay show. He was afraid it was going to be a fratboy straight show and didn't want to go alone, but thought the young guy in the poster was so hot he had to see it. We all laughed our asses off and learned some fun, naughty songs. Fun Fun Fun!

Glad we went, considering as soon as we left, my husband asked what time Victoria's Secret opened in the morning. Then he booked us a weekend in Las Vegas. True, "Mr. NFL" was a little uneasy during the gay stuff. Luckily, there wasn't a lot of it and it was mostly in the second half. after he'd already heard the Milf song. I didn't even know what a Milf was. I do now.

What a fun night out! We're from the East Coast and had never even heard of this show. The concierge at our hotel recommended it, and said that even with no nudity, we might blush a lot. We did. And loved every position and every song. Well, the std song was maybe a little squirmy. And the performers were talented and hot. We bought two cds. One for us and one for my lesbian auntie. She has to hear "When Pussies Collide."

A scream! We went for a bachelorette party. We sang the songs all the way home and all through the wedding. It's the best deal in Chicago. When it gets to Vegas we'll have to pay three times as much, and sit three times further back, and we'll still leave sore from laughing and horny as hell.
